District Six Museum

What to expect

South Africa's contentious political history has laid the groundwork for an ongoing social narrative surrounding the displacement of certain racial groups in the Apartheid era. One such displaced community was District Six, a once-flourishing group of 60,000+ individuals who were forcibly removed from their homes to the barren outlying areas called the Cape Flats. The District Six Museum pays homage to this community and unpacks the atrocity of the legal system that allowed their displacement.

Wine Farms

Ernie Els

What to expect

If you enjoy wine and golf, look no further. During his extensive travels as a professional golfer, Ernie Els was exposed to some of the world's finest wines and decided to pursue his passion by starting his own estate. Founded in 1999 and based in Stellenbosch, Ernie Els Wines is a sophisticated yet laid back winery framed by panoramic views of Table Mountain and Stellenbosch. It is a truly magnificent setting with award-winning wine, great food and, of course, the opportunity to hit a few golf balls between wine tasting.
